

GENERAL NOTICE

The Board wishes to bring to the attention of Members, the matter of privacy of their personal information that is collected, stored and used by the Club.

While the Club does not have a documented Privacy Policy, the Board appreciates, and acknowledges, the importance of maintaining the privacy of each member's personal information. Members can be assured that the Board in carrying out its responsibilities to administer and conduct the activities of the Club, will continue to only disclose personal details of Members as is essential for it to meet those responsibilities.

In the conduct of normal course of business, the Club would only disclose restricted personal information to other members of the Club and to Bowls Victoria. As you will be aware, contact details of every member is available to other members through the publication of the Club Booklet. Bowls Victoria is provided with details needed to register a member as entitled to participate in events sanctioned by Bowls Victoria.

Bowls Victoria may share members' personal information with Bowls Australia and other third parties for the purpose of conducting and administering bowls and other related activities across Australia, providing member services and promotional material. Sharing of information is carried out while complying with legal obligations or otherwise in accordance with its Privacy Policy. The Privacy Policy can be viewed at the Bowls Victoria website.

If you do not wish to receive promotional material from Bowls Victoria sponsors and third parties you must advise them accordingly.