Club Minor's Championship

Paul Ives took out the Club Minor's Championship Grand Final against Warwick Robinson on Friday evening. Paul got out to an early 7 shot lead and was able to bat away each of the three challenges that Warwick threw up in the game – eventually taking the Championship 25 – 15. Congratulations to Paul (who has those wide turning bowls under excellent control) on his solid win – and to Warwick for reaching the Grand Final.

Living Memorial to Club President Nigel Thompson makes it on to prime-time television

The Living Memorial to Nigel we told you about in the last Edition did make it on to prime television – Channel 10 The Project last Thursday evening; and what a show it was!!!

For anyone who missed it, you can catch it via this link:

News around the Club

- A couple of more recent COVID cases among our members, Sam & Nancy Folino and Ian Ferretter. Hopefully they are all now on the mend and emerging from quarantine.
- With the Pennant Season now completed, BowledOver will revert to less frequent publication – next Edition in the lead up to the Triples Championship.
- A big "thank you" to Nigel for the home made pies last Thursday (made from the Tournament's excess catering).
